

2020 Charter and Magnet School- Kindergarten Transition Panel Summary

Overview

A virtual panel was held the week of January 11th, 2021. The panel served as an opportunity for parents to learn more about charter and magnet schools. Collegiate Hall, College Bound Academy, Tulsa Legacy Charter School, Dual Language Academy, Mayo Demonstration Academy, and Zarrow International School attended the event. Like the sessions held on December 8th and December 9th, the panel opened with an introduction of transitions as a topic, reviewed how to prepare for Kindergarten, and concluded with a panel exchange framed by frequently asked questions and questions from the attendees.

Recordings from this event and others are available at: <https://captulsa.org/kte/>

The panelists were as follows:

Questions asked during the panel discussions

- How do transitions affect children with special needs and developmental concerns?
- What is your program's enrollment process?
- What does distance learning look like if my child's class, school, or district, moves to distance learning?
- Will Kindergarten provide support for my child who does not speak English as their first language?
- What is the teacher-to-child ratio?
- What type of tests will my child be given during the school year? How will I be informed of my child's progress?
- What is your district's enrollment process?
- Will my child have homework?
- Can I volunteer in my child's classroom?
- What is your district's sick policy?
- What kinds of qualifications do Kindergarten teachers have?
- What kind of discipline do you use?
- How is Kindergarten different at your charter/magnet school?
